

Positioning Map

SkillSwap

A brand positioning map visualizes where a company is positioned in the customer's mind. The goal of brand positioning is to enable companies to make a unique and lasting impression on the public so that they associate their brand with specific and desirable attributes.

